To Whom It May Concern,

The University of Michigan, as an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer, complies with all applicable federal and state laws regarding nondiscrimination and affirmative action. The University of Michigan is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for all persons and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, religion, height, weight, or veteran status in employment, educational programs and activities, and admissions. The University also prohibits retaliation related to complaints of discrimination or harassment based on any of the above identified protected classes.

Further, the University of Michigan prohibits sexual assault, sexual and gender based harassment, intimate partner violence, stalking, and related retaliation. This prohibited conduct is expressly forbidden and will not be tolerated at the University.

The University of Michigan strongly encourages prompt reporting of prohibited conduct to the Office for Institutional Equity, which is tasked with investigating discrimination. Inquiries or complaints may be addressed to Tami Strickman, Associate Vice President for Institutional Equity; Elizabeth Seney, Title IX Coordinator; and/or Christina Kline, Section 504/ADA Coordinator, Office for Institutional Equity, 2072 Administrative Services Building, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109-1432, (734) 763-0235, TTY (734) 647-1388.

Sincerely,

Tami Strickman
Associate Vice President for Institutional Equity
