Career Paths for Ph.D.s in STEM

MONDAY, JUNE 25, 2018

8:30 A.M. TO 5:30 P.M.

Rackham is sponsoring a full day workshop for doctoral students in STEM fields to engage in skill and career exploration, gain insight into a variety of career paths, identify their transferable knowledge and skills, and practice communicating these to others.

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW

- Develop a better understanding of careers
- Conduct face-to-face meetings with alumni
- Identify desirable skills and expertise
- Develop skills for effective networking
- Build professional communities
- Explore career paths through conversations

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: JUNE 18

Space is limited. Upon confirmation, participants will be asked to pay a $10 fee, which helps Rackham defray the cost of workshop materials and meals. This event is reserved for University of Michigan Ph.D. students.
